Our SAMHAIN/KILSLUG all-ages show went off like the space shuttle. The YWCA was packed and the bands played explosive sets. Thanks to everyone involved.

Plug of the month: The PAGANS LP Buried Alive, a compilation of their four singles and several unreleased tracks. This stink bomb from the midwest packs crunch, "scorch" as B. Coley would have it, like a piece of green stuff that stuck to the bottom of your shoe that time you ventured into the men's room of the Oklahoma City Municipal Baths. Wow. What I mean, is, like buy it and play it. In fact half the staff here is gonna be partying this weekend, listening to the slab and quaffing Genesee.

Remember,and don't ever forget, we're going to be broadcasting a 7-day history of punk rock in May (12th-18th to be exact). That's right, 168 hours of punk rock from its roots to what's happening today. We'd like everyone to participate. Bands send us records, I.D.'s, demos, tapes of that hard to find single or stop by for an interview. Labels give us back service, advertise (we are a commercial station with very low rates), or ask your bands to do I.D.'s and interviews. 'Zines and newspapers tell your readers about what's going on. And finally, individuals, whether you're a record collector, a punk rock historian, or the refugee from some late great band, give us a call or drop us a line here at WHRB.

Many thanks to Rough Trade for the great Brit stuff, Hillary at AAM for the Jesus And Mary Chain giveaway, Neil and Sarah at ROIR and to everyone else who's been cool to us in the last month.

OTHER PLUGS: EASTERN DARK (who ALL perished in a car accident last week), HOWLING COMMANDOS, X (the Australian band), NILS, NAKED PREY (not Patrick), FORCE MAJEURE (if Soul Asylum were from Sweden maybe they'd be a tenth this cool), SHOUTLESS, WILMER X, SUBHUMANS, "Rema, Rema," SLAPSHOT, THE FLEX, GREY MATTER, NAKED RAYGUN (not Barnaby) and the MULTICOLOURED SHADES.

Till next time,

Patrick and Barnaby Patrick Barnaby
